

LUTHER

*To a man who does what is in him,
God gives grace without fail.*

*Although he wants us to be prepared for this
as much as lies in us.*

ROMANS 5:5

*God's love has been poured out into our hearts
through the Holy Spirit, who has been given to us.*

COUNCIL OF TRENT

*"Nobody can know
with a certainty of faith, (which is not subject to error),
whether they have obtained
the grace of God"*

JOHN CALVIN

JOHN
CALVIN

"The greatest geniuses, are blinder than moles"

CALVIN

"Scripture everywhere proclaims that God finds nothing in humans to arouse them to do good to him, but God comes first to humanity in his free generosity"

CALVIN

*"Everything good in the will is the work of grace alone...
If even the least ability
came from ourselves,
We would have a share
in the merit."*

CALVIN

*"In Christ alone
God the father
is gracious to us"*

CALVIN

*'It follows that any philosophy or religion that does not acknowledge the saving grace of Christ;
is a worthless vehicle of salvation'*

CALVIN

*"Now for us it is free,
but not so for Christ,
who dearly bought it at the cost of his most sacred blood!!"*

CALVIN

*"Slanderosly charge us,
with abolishing good works*

*“Christ has taken upon himself,
what he was not;
&
Has given to me,
what I was not”*

WILLIAM TYNDALE

*“Merry, glad and joyful tidings, that makes a person's heart glad and makes them sing
and dance and leap for joy’*
