Speaker

Melinda Smith will be speaking on the topic of Remaining in Jesus. Melinda is from Cairns in Far North Queensland and grew up in a God fearing but non-Christian family. She became a Christian in her final year of High School and was searching for meaning and purpose in life, went to a youth event by herself where she knew no-one, heard the gospel and then prayed a prayer of repentance and faith under a palm tree.

She moved to Brisbane for uni and grew in her faith during her undergrad years of living on campus. About a decade later she studied at QTC and now works at Ann Street Presbyterian Church where she has been for almost 3 years working with women in various stages of life who are part of her church community - particularly elderly, newcomers, single women, non/new Christians and international students).

For fun, she teaches swimming lessons to little kids (and enjoys the free access to group fitness classes that is a perk of the job).

More Info...

We want each of the women coming along to feel relaxed and comfortable and so please know that the program is a guide for what is on, but if you need to take time out at any stage, none of the activities are compulsory!

We'll have an art and craft table set up for those who are creative and some colouring pages as well as board games and a book stall to browse. There is no extra cost for bowling.
